

Contents

	Page
Preface	III
List of Sources	XI
List of Abbreviations	XVII
List of Persons	XXI
 Vietnam
I. Reassessment in Washington and inaction in Saigon, August 28–September 7: The coup stalls, President Kennedy’s public statement, attempts to negotiate Nhu’s removal and change South Vietnam’s policies	1
II. Period of interlude, September 7–October 22: Assessment of the progress of the war, U.S. efforts to reform the Diem government, the McNamara–Taylor mission to Vietnam and report, U.S. policy on coup plotting in Vietnam	133
III. The coup against the Diem government, October 23–November 2: Differing interpretations of U.S. policy toward coup plotting, efforts to obtain information on a potential coup, Lodge–Diem discussions, U.S. assessments of a coup, the coup, the deaths of Nhu and Diem	427
IV. U.S. relations with the Provisional Government of Vietnam, November 2–22: U.S. recognition of the Provisional Government, the fate of remaining Ngo family members and Tri Quang, U.S. advice to the new government, rejection of a neutralized South Vietnam, the special Honolulu meeting	538
V. The Johnson presidency, November 22–December 31: Lodge–Johnson meeting on Vietnam, NSAM 273, McNamara visit, year-end observations	627
Index	759
	IX